I love hearing from folks. The good and the bad. Let me know what you like. Definitely let me know what you don't like.

The best way to reach me is through my Facebook Page or Twitter. I always respond to posts on the Facebook Page and, if you mention me in your tweet, I'll definitely respond!

Even better, I'll make it that much easier for you. Click on the icon below to tweet me!

If you're going to email me (and I'm stealing this from my buddy Sean Davis over at sdavismedia.com), check out Derek Halpern's video below. It's funny and it'll give you a few quick ideas on how to write an email.

Done? Good.

If you still want to email me, you can reach me at dan AT suburbansteader DOT com.
