

Resources

Welcome to the Suburban Steader Resources page!

On this page, you'll find a highly extensive list the books, tools, gadgets, and websites I wholeheartedly recommend for building and maintaining your suburban homestead.

None of the items here are recommended without my personal testing and approval. Many of the resources I recommend are critical to the continued success of the Suburban Steader homestead or were crucial to its humble beginnings.

Before you start clicking around, I want to fully disclose that some of the links you'll find here are affiliate links. This means that, if you choose to make a purchase, I will earn a small commission. This commission is a percentage of the purchase cost to you and is not an additional cost. I am recommending these products and services because I have personal experience with them and not because of the small amount of commission I make if you decide to buy something. Please, please, please do not spend any money on these products unless you truly need them.
